WHY GIVE?

AOA is there every step of the way along your orthopaedic career path:

CULTIVATING THE NEXT GENERATION
Outstanding PGY4 residents gain knowledge of leadership concepts at the Resident Leadership Forum. We provide mentorship, leadership training, and opportunities for Emerging Leaders.

ENRICHING DYNAMIC EDUCATORS
CORD affiliates advance GME to improve resident and fellow training, while AOA Traveling Fellowships expand experiences and horizons.

FOSTERING ROLE MODELS
For those leading teams, we offer continuous leadership education for every career step and stage.

HONOR YOUR MENTOR WITH A TRIBUTE GIFT
Any gift made to the AOA may also be a fitting tribute to a colleague, friend, and/or loved one. A gift in support of the AOA’s signature programs makes a thoughtful gift to help celebrate a birthday, anniversary, holiday, achievement, and/or special occasion.

Work with Others to Honor an Orthopaedic Leader
Would you like to formally honor a mentor or an orthopaedic leader that made an impression on your career and many others like you? Individuals or groups of donors can work together to make a commitment of new gifts or pledges totaling a minimum of $75,000 in someone’s honor. The honoree would be recognized at the next AOA Annual Meeting.

YOUR GIFT EXPANDS THE ORTHOPAEDIC JOURNEY

The Campaign for Tomorrow will provide the AOA with important flexibility to grow and fund new and signature programs. The Campaign will also provide those in a position to have the greatest impact on orthopaedics with essential knowledge and resources.

AMPLIFY YOUR INFLUENCE

The AOA’s many aspiring and established leaders influence those in their professional circles, providing a significant influence on the issues — large and small — facing our specialty.

Together, we collectively increase impact on our profession in the key areas of:

- Leadership
- Academic orthopaedic training
- Finding solutions to the profession’s most critical issues
- Whether you give back in recognition of your mentors or to help develop the next generation of orthopaedic leaders, your gift to the Campaign for Tomorrow is a promise to the extraordinary surgeons in our past, present, and future.

The AOA is an equal opportunity employer.

When I'm asked to reflect on my career, I find myself either starting or ending with the privilege I have had on the AOA to work with such exceptionally talented individuals.

WHY GIVE?

AOA is there every step of the way along your orthopaedic career path:

CULTIVATING THE NEXT GENERATION
Outstanding PGY4 residents gain knowledge of leadership concepts at the Resident Leadership Forum. We provide mentorship, leadership training, and opportunities for Emerging Leaders.

ENRICHING DYNAMIC EDUCATORS
CORD affiliates advance OAM to improve resident and fellow training, while AOA Traveling Fellowships expand experiences and horizons.

AOA’s Department Leadership Forums and other symposia focus on the latest topics of interest that affect orthopaedic education, like managing workload, avoiding burnout, and managing your online reputation.

FOSTERING ROLE MODELS

For those leading teams, we offer continuous leadership education for every career step and stage.

HONOR YOUR MENTOR
WITH A TRIBUTE GIFT
Any gift made to the AOA may also be a fitting tribute to a colleague, friend, and/or loved one. A gift in support of the AOA’s signature programs makes a thoughtful gift to help celebrate a birthday, anniversary, holiday, achievement, and/or special occasion.

Work with Others to Honor an Orthopaedic Leader
Would you like to formally honor a mentor or an orthopaedic leader that made an impression on your career and many others like you? Individuals or groups of donors can work together to make a commitment of new gifts or pledges totaling a minimum of $75,000 in someone’s honor. The honoree would be recognized at the next AOA Annual Meeting.

For more information, visit aoassn.org/Tribute.

RESTRICT YOUR GIFT
100% of your contribution can be invested and directed to support the program(s) of your choice.

WHY GIVE?
AOA is there every step of the way along your orthopaedic career path:

CULTIVATING THE NEXT GENERATION
Outstanding PGY4 residents gain knowledge of leadership concepts at the Resident Leadership Forum. We provide mentorship, leadership training, and opportunities for Emerging Leaders.

ENRICHING DYNAMIC EDUCATORS
CORD affiliates advance GME to improve resident and fellow training, while AOA Traveling Fellowships expand experiences and horizons.

FOSTERING ROLE MODELS
For those leading teams, we offer continuous leadership education for every career step and stage.
