

Bryce Bell Bio

I was born in West Texas, in Midland, but grew up in the Dallas-Fort Worth area. I went to college at Texas Christian University (2006) and then completed medical school at Baylor College of Medicine (BCM) in Houston, TX (2010). I remained at BCM for my Orthopedic Surgery residency (2015). I then trained in Hand Surgery at Medical College of Wisconsin in Milwaukee, WI (2016). Finally, I completed my Pediatric Upper Extremity Fellowship at Texas Scottish Rite Hospital in Dallas, TX (2017). I then joined the Department of Orthopedic Surgery at Baylor College of Medicine, working full-time for the past 7 years at Texas Children's Hospital as a Pediatric Upper Extremity surgeon. I took on the role of Associate Program Director for the BCM Hand Surgery Fellowship in 2023 and will become Program Director in July 2024. I have been married to my wife, Michelle, for the past 17 years and have 2 children, ages 11 and 5.
