

Christopher Bayne, M.D., is an Associate Professor of Orthopedic Surgery, Fellowship Director, and an upper extremity specialist at UC Davis Medical Center and Shriners Hospital of Northern California in Sacramento, CA. Driven by a passion for medical education, he is deeply committed to training and mentoring the next generation of physicians and orthopedic surgeons.