

Carter Clement is a pediatric orthopaedic surgeon with a practice focusing on spine deformity, hip preservation, and complex foot reconstruction. He practices in his hometown at Children's Hospital of New Orleans and has served as LSU associate residency director for 5 years. In that role, he has focused on resident selection and building a holistic review process which has been well-received by the department and school of medicine.