

Dr. Barber graduated from Georgia Tech in Computer Science in 1989, then Medical College of Georgia in 1993. Upon completing orthopaedic residency at Georgia Baptist (Atlanta Medical Center), he began private practice in general orthopaedics in Douglas, GA. He married Douglas native Jessica and they are raising three wonderful girls. His family enjoys traveling, sailing, and church.

Dr. Barber is a graduate of MAG's Georgia Physicians Leadership Academy, AAOS Leadership Fellows Program, and Leadership Georgia 2011. He served as President of the Georgia Orthopaedic Society, and currently serves on the AAOS Board of Directors as Chair-elect of the AAOS Board of Councilors, as Speaker of the House of the Medical Association of Georgia, as immediate past-chair of the Georgia Board of Healthcare Workforce, and unit commander of South Georgia MAG Medical Reserve Corps.