

Bopha Chrea, MD, is an Orthopedic Surgeon and Assistant Professor in the Orthopedic and Rehabilitation Department at University of Iowa Health Care. She specializes in treating patients with foot and ankle ailments, including acute trauma, post traumatic deformity and arthritis, foot malalignment, bunions, sport-related injuries to the foot and ankle, and revisions for prior surgeries. She is an expert in reconstructive surgery of the foot and ankle and treats a wide range of foot and ankle injuries.

Dr. Chrea research focuses on post traumatic ankle arthritis and Charcot-Marie-Tooth (CMT) associated foot pathology. She is the current CMTA-INC Inherited Neuropathies Training Fellow.

Dr. Chrea received her medical degree from Trinity College, University of Dublin before completing her residency in Orthopedic Surgery at the University of Mississippi Medical Center in Jackson, MS. She completed a fellowship in Reconstructive Foot and Ankle Surgery at Hospital for Special Surgery in New York, NY.

Dr. Chrea is board certified by the American Board of Orthopedic Surgery. She is a member of the American Orthopaedic Foot & Ankle Society, American Academy of Orthopaedic Surgeons, Orthopaedic Research Society, and Western Orthopaedic Society.