

Brian Morgan, M.D., is a board-certified orthopedic surgeon practicing in the Atlanta area. Fellowship trained in sports medicine, Dr. Morgan's practice includes general orthopedics, sports medicine, fracture care, arthroscopic surgery and work injuries. Dr. Morgan has special interest in knee, shoulder and hip arthroscopy.

Dr. Morgan's interest in Orthopedics and sports medicine began as a participant. He is an avid sports enthusiast who played soccer and basketball on both the high school and collegiate levels. He is involved in many community, college and professional organizations, serving as an orthopaedic consultant and team physician. He has provided sideline medical coverage for the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl, Chick-fil-A Kickoff Game and SEC football title games, ATP tennis, Atlanta Silverback Professional Soccer Team and the Georgia Force Arena Football Team. He currently serves as a team physician for the Atlanta Gladiators Professional Hockey Team.

In his spare time, he enjoys lake life, spending time with his wife and their rescue dogs, and travelling, especially if it involves the beach or mountains. As a Commercially rated pilot, he enjoys flying aerobatics for fun as well as flying for business or personal trips.