I was born in Sierra Madre, CA and grew up outside of east Los Angeles. I moved to the Midwest in 1992 and attended Creighton University School of Medicine, completed residency at the University of Missouri at Columbia as well as a spine fellowship at the Texas Back Institute. I currently live in Omaha NE and have been with the same practice for the past 24 years. I've been married for over 33 years and have two beautiful daughters; one at Ohio State University in residency for Pediatrics and the youngest at Vanderbit finishing her 3rd year of law school.
