Dr. Chenoweth earned his medical degree from the University of Oklahoma Health Science Center in Oklahoma City, OK in 2012. He completed his Orthopedic Surgery Residency at the University of Oklahoma College of Medicine in 2017. Dr. Chenoweth continued his specialized education and training with a fellowship in Hand and Upper Extremity Surgery at the University of Pittsburgh Medical Center in 2018.

Dr. Chenoweth established his medical practice with OU Physicians in 2018. He has been named an Assistant Professor at the University of Oklahoma College of Medicine. He served as Assistant Program Director of the Orthopedic Residency from 2020-2026 and now serves as the acting Program Director.

When he is not practicing medicine, he enjoys playing guitar, snowboarding, and spending time with his wife and 3 children.