Adam Dann, DO, FAOAO, FAOA is a fellowship-trained orthopedic surgeon specializing in hand and upper extremity surgery at Orthopedic Associates of Southwest Ohio in Dayton, Ohio. He completed and orthopedic surgery residency at Des Peres Hospital in Saint Louis, Missouri, followed by a hand and upper extremity fellowship at Grandview Hospital in Dayton, Ohio.

Dr. Dann is board certified and has a certificate of added qualification in hand surgery from the American Osteopathic Board of Orthopedic Surgery, and has extensive experience in the surgical management of complex conditions about the shoulder, elbow, wrist and hand, with a special interest in shoulder arthroplasty and open reconstructive procedures. He currently serves on the board of directors of Orthopedic Associates of Southwest Ohio, and is also a board member of the American Osteopathic Academy of Orthopedics.

Dr. Dann is the program director for the Kettering Health Grandview Hand Fellowship, where he also serves as core faculty for the Orthopedic Surgery Residency Program. He is dedicated to teaching the next generation of surgeons through didactics, scholarly activity, and clinical mentorship. He also participates in an annual faith based medical mission to Tegucigalpa, Honduras.

Outside of medicine, Dr. Dann is married to Dr. Tammy Dann, DO, and together they are raising four daughters.