David M. Walton, M.D. is a Clinical Associate Professor of Orthopaedic Surgery at the University of Michigan specializing in disorders of the Foot and Ankle. Raised in Michigan, he completed his undergraduate studies at the University of Michigan. He was awarded his medical degree from Case Western Reserve University School of Medicine.

Currently, he is Chief of the Foot and Ankle Service and Medical Director of the South Main Ambulatory Care Unit. He also serves as the Orthopaedic Surgery Residency Associate Program Director.