Charles Yu, MD is a board-certified orthopedic spine surgeon at Ochsner Medical Center in New Orleans, LA. He received his undergraduate degree in Biology-Neuroscience at Washington University in St. Louis. He then went on to medical school at Case Western Reserve University School of Medicine in Cleveland, Ohio. He completed his Orthopaedic Surgery residency at Henry Ford Hospital in Detroit, during which time he received the Harold M. Frost MD Resident Researcher of the Year Award in 2019, as well as the Charles Townley Resident Best Manuscript Award in the state of Michigan. Dr. Yu completed his fellowship training in Orthopedic Spine Surgery at Norton Leatherman Spine Center in Louisville, Kentucky.

Dr. Yu is an Assistant Professor at Xavier Ochsner College of Medicine and at the University of Queensland School of Medicine. He was named Teacher of the Year by the Ochsner Orthopaedic Surgery residents. He is passionate about education and serves as the Associate Residency Program Director at Ochsner Orthopedic Surgery Department. He focuses on improving patient outcomes and safety, as he serves as the Director of Spine Quality at Ochsner. Dr. Yu is the Medical Director or Orthopedic Spine Surgery, as well as the Director of Bollinger Complex Spine Center. Dr. Yu is an active member of the SRS, NASS, AOA, AAOS, and Louisiana Orthopedic Association.